

Amory McAndrew Honored by The Museum of the City of New York

New York, NY—February 23, 2018—Amory McAndrew, associate at Hoguet Newman Regal & Kenney LLP, was honored at The Museum of the City of New York's 2018 Winter Ball for her dedication to the Museum and other noteworthy New York institutions over the years. The annual event, which raises funds and awareness for the Museum, took place at Cipriani 42nd Street and raised more than $800,000.

McAndrew was recognized for her fundraising efforts and unwavering commitment to the Museum, which she has supported for over five years.

At HNRK, McAndrew represents corporate and individual clients in a wide-ranging trial practice with particular emphasis on securities and white-collar matters. She has significant experience representing clients in securities class actions, derivative actions, and in SEC enforcement proceedings.

In addition to the Museum of the City of New York, McAndrew devotes significant time to supporting Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center and New York Presbyterian Hospital. Additionally, for more than 15 years, she has served on the board of directors of Tervis Tumbler, and currently sits on the Audit Committee of the company, which employs more than 900 people. She also contributes her leadership skills to the Frick Collection, where she acts as the Steering Committee chair.
